THE CONVENTION AND THE TICKET.

The Democratic County Convention, on Monday last, was one of the most intelligent and respectable political bodies that ever assembled in this place. Every district was represented, all the old veterans, with the younger soldiers in the work, ardently resolved upon one and the same purpose—the nomination of a good ticket. The delegates had no personal or selfish aims to gratify; the welfare of our county, and therefore our country, was what they sought. Under such circumstances, a ticket worthy of the approbation and support of all conservative and patriotic citizens could alone result. No mistake could occur among men acting thus disinterestedly and intelligently.

That the ticket is an unexceptionable and strong one, even the most bigoted of the Opposition are compelled to admit. The contrast between it and that of the spoils-men is most marked.

Hon. Robert J. Fisher, of York, re-nominated by acclamation for President Judge, is a sound and able jurist, and an honest man, actuated solely by a desire to fairly administer the law, and holding the scales with a firm grasp, deal out justice evenly-handedly. His life alone speaks volumes in his favor, and should of itself secure his re-election—which is, that his decisions stand the test in the Supreme Court fully as well, if not better, than those of any other Judge in the State. We will not permit ourselves to doubt his re-election by a tremendous majority.

Hon. David Ziegler, of this place, was also complimented with a unanimous re-nomination to the Bench, as Associate Judge—a well-earned endorsement of a faithful and useful officer—one who has always kept in view the performance of what he conscientiously believed to be his duty. The people will also greet him at the ballot-box with the "welcome plaudits"—well done, good and faithful servant—keep your seat!

Henry J. Myers, Esq., of Tyrone, the popular Representative of this county in the Legislature last winter, was given the same post on the ticket, in the same handsome manner—by acclamation. This complimentary expression was also deserved on his part, while giving a firm support to the Government, he was always found acting with those of both parties, who believed it to be a duty to guard the public interests against the designs of self-demagogues and unprincipled speculators, and so acted as to prevent, if possible, a wasteful extravagance in the expenditure of the people's money. For this he should be re-elected, and we feel sure that the people of Adams will "delight to honor" him with a rousing majority on the second Tuesday of October.

For County Treasurer, Jacob Shears, of this borough, received the nomination, by an almost unanimous vote on the first ballot. He has never been favored with a large "share of this world's goods," but has always been one of our most upright and worthy citizens, striving by hard labor to make an honest living for himself and those dependent upon him. The people of the county will but reward true merit by giving him a large majority of their suffrages—an act which we believe they will most cheerfully do.

The Convention selected John Dutterra, of Germany, for County Commissioner—an excellent selection also. He is a good business man and a large tax-payer, who will spare no effort to husband the county's means. He is just the man for the post. He came within six votes of being elected to the same office in 1854, against the father of the present nominee on the Opposition ticket. Upon this trial it is safe to predict that the people will give the verdict in his favor by a flattering vote.

Capt. Andrew Little, of old Mount Pleasant, is the candidate for Director of the Poor. In this office, made by an almost unanimous vote, the Convention was also fortunate, because he, too, is admirably fitted for the position, fully coming up to the Jeffersonian standard—he is honest—he is capable. Respected and esteemed by all who know him, he cannot fail of success. Mount Pleasant will lead off for him high up in the figures.

John Cole, of "Buchanan Valley," in Franklin township, has been assigned on the ticket, the post of County Auditor. There is not a man that knows anything about him but what speaks well of him. Indeed, it could not be otherwise, because the county does not contain a more unexceptionable citizen. He is an excellent accountant, and will make an excellent officer. Of course he will be elected.

And so will Dr. A. B. Dill, of Petersburg, who received the nomination for Coroner. He possesses every qualification, and is in all respects deserving of popular favor.

We have thus briefly alluded to the merits of the Democratic candidates. They are all the right men for the right places—popular, honest, and qualified—and ardently devoted to the Constitution and the Union. This Democracy can point with pride to each and all of them, confident in the assurance that patriotic citizens of all parties will join them, at the polls, in pronouncing the ticket "A STRONG TEAM!"

The Democrats of York county, on Tuesday last, nominated the following ticket: President Judge, Hon. R. J. Fisher. Associate Judge, Hon. Adam Elough. Senator, Ben. A. H. Glaz. Assembly, Joseph Dillman, A. C. Ramsey. Commissioner, John Hyde. Treasurer, Henry Bender. Auditor, Samuel H. Seiman. Judges Fisher and Elough were nominated by acclamation.

The Star says that the Spoils ticket gives "general satisfaction." "How this world is given to lying!" If the editor is at all posted, he must know that even in his own party dissatisfaction is wide spread and outspoken, and that defections are daily taking place throughout the entire county. Right-thinking men will not be sold like sheep in the market, at the bidding of a few unprincipled political sticklers.

The Spoils would have its readers believe that there were twelve or fifteen Democrats in the Spoils Convention. Who were they? Point them out, and let the public judge. We know that the names of several Democrats are given in the proceedings as Delegates who were not in town at all on that day!

This little trick is characteristic of the whole affair, from beginning to end—it is all a trick, to get offices for men who could not otherwise secure them.

We are glad to know that the thinking people of all parties are opening their eyes to this fact. They don't want to be betrayed off to a pair of run-down politicians.

The renegade Forney, in his Poor, applauds the ticket made for the benefit of the new political firm here on Saturday week. Of course—why should he not? "Birds of a feather flock together." They are all moved by the same kind of patriotism—that of the pocket.

As the Star would not be touched with a ten-foot pole in certain townships of the county, the managers have hit upon a desperate expedient to have it introduced there.

We understand that the two inside pages of the Star are printed on a half-sheet, with the name of "Stars and Stripes" across the head, but without the name of any other paper, in order to keep the public in the dark as to its true character.

A leading Republican in one of the lower townships asked a Democrat to subscribe for this sheet, (made up of the Star matter), urging that it was "a Douglas Democratic paper."

A more outrageous political trick never was attempted in this county. It could only have been invented by unscrupulous politicians, who care more for spoils than for country and constitution. A nice set of "no party" men, indeed!

Was there not a County Committee appointed at the No-Party-Spoils Convention? If there was the public curiosity to see the names of the persons composing it should be gratified. If there was not, then it is to be inferred that all the wires are to be pulled and the machinery managed by the new political firm in this borough. The published proceedings of the Convention make no mention of a County Committee.

The Star says that the Democratic Convention, on Monday, at "Stable's Convention." There is a serious drawback to this left-handed compromise. The old Democratic party—noble in its aims, national in its principles, and glorious in its history—is not a merchantable commodity, to be transferred every year, under some new name, from the keeping of one set of leaders to that of another, its interest may dictate. There may be other parties in that "fix," but the Democratic party NEVER!

The Star pulls all the candidates on the Spoils ticket except Edmund Myers. "What's in the wind? Is there anything 'going wrong' that he should thus be passed over? Is he to fall in the house of his friends?" It looks so.

The Democratic ticket gives entire satisfaction all over the county. Democrats feel proud of it, as well as of the harmonious and hearty manner in which it was nominated. Men of all parties speak well of it, a better recommendation than which could not be had. It is emphatically A GOOD TICKET.

It has been extremely fashionable for some of the Republicans, here and elsewhere, to denounce all Democrats as "traitors" and "secessionists," who prefer, at this time, to remain true to their time-honored organization. These charges generally come from men who are very willing to defend their country by holding all the offices they can get, but who prefer to let the Democrats shoulder the musket and carry the knapsack. These patriotic gentlemen were very brave last fall in wide-awake processions, but they are now the last to march under their country's flag, and they also contribute as little as they can to the support of the families of the volunteers during the absence of the latter. There are men in this community who are loud-mouthed in denouncing Democrats, but who have as yet only shown their loyalty in that peculiar way. The Democrats have gone to battle; they freely pay their contributions to support the families of the absent—they are true to the Union, the Constitution and the enforcement of the laws—and they will treat as they deserve all the slanders that may be heaped upon them by their ancient enemies.

Tark Gazette.

Will the Star say that the Chambersburg Ticket has not got the regular Democratic ticket at its mast-head? The question is easily answered. Walk up to the scratch!

The Republicans in their heavy counties are nominating straight-out Republican tickets. They don't seem to think that the state of the county requires the "wiping out" of their party.

If the Star will publish the name of a Union Democrat, we will show him to be anything but what he claims to be.

Military Voting.

The Harrisburg Patriot & Union says—A large number of the country press of this State have fallen into the groove of supposing that the volunteers serve on vote for county officers under the same law that permits them to vote for State officers. Some papers have published sections of the late law, among which is the following:

Section 40. The return judges of the proper county or counties in which the volunteers or militiamen are engaged may have received at the time of being called into actual service, as aforesaid, shall meet on the second Tuesday in November next after the election. And when two or more counties are connected in the election, the meeting of the judges from each county shall be postponed in such case until the Friday following the said second Tuesday in November.

No election returns are made by Congress counties for State officers, the impression seems to be made upon the minds of some that the volunteers may vote for all county officers.

The law does not contemplate this. Indeed, it could not well do so, for to single out each regiment the men belonging to a county, and to arrange matters so as to allow each one to enjoy the elective franchise the same as if at home, would be a job that would occupy at least ten days.

However much we should like to see every man in the army vote, inasmuch as such voting would certainly be advantageous to the Democratic party, we regret to say that all who are not at their proper places of voting will have no say in the ensuing election.

Will Mr. Cochran Resign?

The Gettysburg Advertiser of last week, after remarking that the Republicans of York county, with a few converts, have nominated a ticket, headed by Hon. Thos. E. Cochran for President Judge, says that Mr. Cochran, who is at present Auditor General of the State, "need not resign on account of this Judge business." We are inclined to believe that the Advertiser is more than half right. If we were not so fully convinced of Mr. Cochran's love of office we might expect an immediate resignation, but the prospect of the Judgeship is such as to impress most forcibly upon his mind that "a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush." We predict that Mr. Cochran will not resign—York Gazette.

Not Sanguine.

The Chambersburg Republican, Republican, does not appear to be sanguine of the success of the political "Union" movement in that region. It says:

"There never was a time when to predict the result of an election was harder to accomplish than at the present. Difficult as this would have been under ordinary circumstances, the action of the late Democratic Convention of this county has added considerably to the magnitude of the task."

So to speak, which looks the future from our view. They have adopted our platform, entire; they have selected Hon. Wilson Myers, a very popular man, and well known to the people, as their candidate for the Judgeship, and President Judge Ziegler, and they seem determined to win.

"How to overcome them engages our whole attention. To successfully accomplish this desirable object great care is necessary. Perhaps there would be no good achieved by hostile action, and it is better to wait until Hon. Wilson Myers is universally admitted to be a man who will do us no harm, under ordinary circumstances, would there be any necessity for the effort; but, as matters stand, it must be done, if in our power, honorably."

United We Stand.

In the late Democratic Convention there were no differences between Democrats and Republicans—they were all Democrats. All the old differences have been entirely set aside and the two divisions of the party in this county are firmly united again for the common good.—Chambersburg Star.

One of the best jokes of the season is the following: The Chambersburg Democrat published a couple of weeks ago the following extract from Lincoln's inaugural, without, however, naming the author:

"Suppose you go to war, and cannot fight, and when, after a loss on both sides and upon either, you cease fighting, the identical old questions as to terms of intercourse are again upon you."

The week following the Banner (a Republican paper printed in Clarion) came out in an editorial and denounced the paragraph as reasonable and in strict accordance with the teaching of the X. Y. Dry Book! The poor, blind clupe of error was not posted.

The Democratic Conferences of this judicial district will meet at Newcomer's Hotel, in Hanover, on Saturday next, the 21st instant.

Maine Election.—Boston, Sept. 9.—Returns of the Maine election to-day, from eleven principal towns, give Washburne, Republican, for Governor, 7,000; Jameson, Democrat, 3,300; Dana, peace Democrat, has nearly 1400. In Saco, Biddeford and Brunswick, Dana is ahead of Jameson, the war Democrat.

A New Military Order.—A captain, lately a railroad conductor, was drilling a squad, and while marching them by flank, turned to speak to a friend for a moment. On looking again towards his squad, he saw they were in the act of "bating up" against a fence. In his hurry to halt them, he shouted out "Down Brakes! Down Brakes!"

Rhinoceros Drowned.—A despatch, dated Lacrosse, 19th inst., says: "Last night the steamer Kentucky, through an error from the steamer forty killed below here. A cage which contained a trained Rhinoceros, was knocked overboard. The cage sunk immediately, drowning the rhinoceros, which was valued at $30,000. Neither of the boats were injured."

A splendid speech was sent us by Mr. Enos Rutzars, of Menallen township, the other day. It measured 101 inches—a brilliant yellow—one of the richest in color and taste we ever saw.

Adjourned until 1 o'clock.

1 o'clock.—Convention re-assembled. President in the chair. The Convention proceeded to nominate a County Ticket.

For President Judge, Hon. Robert J. Fisher, of York, was nominated by acclamation.

For Associate Judge, Hon. David Ziegler, of Gettysburg, by acclamation.

For Assembly, Henry J. Myers, Esq., of Tyrone, by acclamation.

For County Treasurer, Jacob Shears, of Gettysburg, by acclamation.

For County Commissioner, John Dutterra, of Germany.

For Director of the Poor, Capt. Andrew Little, of Mount Pleasant.

For County Auditor, John Cole, of Franklin.

For Coroner, Dr. A. B. Dill, of Huntingdon.

John Busey, Esq., of Gettysburg, was chosen by acclamation as Delegate to the next Democratic State Convention.

Mr. Peffer, from the Committee on Resolutions, then made the following report, which was received with three cheers, and adopted unanimously:

Resolved, That we endorse the sentiments of Andrew Jackson, in his own language: "The Union must and shall be preserved; the Constitution cannot be maintained, and the Union preserved, in opposition to public feeling, by the mere exercise of the coercive power conferred to the general government. The people in the security of their liberty, character and property, in every quarter of the country, and in the fraternal attachment which the citizens of the several States bear to one another, have gone forth to battle for the Union and the Constitution, and this national strife is contributing to promote the happiness of each other."

Resolved, That the present deplorable civil war having been caused by political fanaticism and rebellion in a few States, we, as this national emergency, banishing all feelings of mere passion or resentment, will recollect only our duty to the whole country; that this war is not waged on our part in any spirit of oppression or of revenge, but for the purpose of overthrowing or suppressing the rights of established institutions of those States; but to defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution, and to preserve the Union, with all the dignity, equality and rights of the several States unimpaired; and that as soon as these objects are accomplished the war ought to cease.

Resolved, That the Democratic party of Adams county will give its firm support to the Government of the United States, in every necessary constitutional effort to sustain the cause of the Union and put down the secession.

Resolved, That, while the present civil war is not of our seeking, it is now in the terrible emergency proper to prosecute the war with efficiency, to the power of the Government, and to the maintenance of the Constitution, and the laws, and the honor of the nation, and the blessings of peace be the sooner restored to our distracted country, either as the result of the success of our arms, or as the fruit of such honorable settlement as will leave the Union of the States inviolate and unbroken.

Resolved, That the officers and soldiers who have gone forth to battle for the Union and the Constitution, deserve the thanks of all patriotic citizens.

Resolved, That we pledge our hearty support to the ticket this day nominated.

The Convention then adjourned, all proceeding with the ticket and confident of success.

The so-called Union Convention of this county, on Saturday week, adopted the following preamble and resolutions:

WHEREAS, This Convention, without distinction of party, has met for the purpose of commencing a basis of union satisfactory to all those who are in favor of maintaining the Union, the Constitution and the Laws; and for the purpose of presenting to the people of Adams County at the coming October Election, for their suffrages, a Ticket composed of men, who are true exponents of these principles; We would, therefore, in the sense of this Convention and of those whom we represent, adopt the following Resolution, endorsed by the Representatives of the people in Congress assembled, at their late extra Session, viz:

"That the present deplorable civil war has been forced upon the country by the disunion of the Southern States, now in arms against the Constitutional Government, and in arms around the Capital; that in this national emergency, banishing all feelings of mere passion or resentment, will recollect only our duty to the whole country; that this war is not waged on our part in any spirit of oppression, or for any purpose of conquest or subjugation, or purpose of overthrowing or interfering with the rights or established institutions of those States; but to defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution, and to preserve the Union, with all the dignity, equality and rights of the several States unimpaired; and that as soon as these objects are accomplished the war ought to cease."

Resolved, further, That in furtherance of the purpose for which this Convention has assembled, we are now presenting to the nomination of candidates for the several offices to be filled this fall, irrespective of party-political distinctions, demanding only fidelity to the foregoing principles, and a willingness to stand by them.

We print this platform in order that our readers may compare it with that adopted by the Democratic County Convention. All candid friends of the Union and the Constitution, of whatever party, must admit that the Democratic platform is the broadest, and the strongest, and the best.

For the Gettysburg Compiler.

Mr. Editor:—Robert G. Harper, Esq., the editor of the "Adams Sentinel" has been heard to say within the last few weeks, more than once, that Judge Fisher is a good Union man, and I am in favor of his re-election. But since the party called "Union," to which Mr. Harper now belongs, has taken Thomas H. Cochran, who has already one good office, that of Auditor General of Pennsylvania, and is now seeking another while he holds fast to the first, Mr. Harper opposes Judge Fisher, and in an article published in his last paper, says: "It was generally supposed, and believed, that Judge Fisher would have been re-elected without any opposition, as he had advocated Union sentiments, but in a letter to a friend, he chose to throw himself into the hands of a party, instead of the people, and the consequence is, that in both York and Adams counties, the friends of the Union and of crushing rebellion, have chosen to take a man who is clear and decided and unopposed in his Union sentiments."

I know that Judge Fisher is a good Union man, as Thomas H. Cochran. I assert that Judge Fisher is a clear and decided and unopposed in his Union sentiments. Do not say speak louder than words? Let us look to the facts:

The editor of the "Star and Banner," some time ago, complimented Judge Fisher in his paper, for his kindness to the soldiers when in York, and it is well known that his purse, his house and his energies were at their service. He visited the hospital to see the sick, and his frequent, and articles of luxury and comfort were daily sent to them by his family. On one occasion, finding a young soldier from Butler county, suffering severely with excruciating pains of the lungs, he had the doctor removed to his own house, nursed and attended to by his family for five or six weeks, until he recovered, and all without charge, or hope of reward, except that of a good conscience. Mr. Harper insinuates that Judge Fisher is not a Union man, though he does not assert it in words.

For the Compiler.

Mr. Editor:—"If I must vote for Democrats, I will vote for such as need not turn their backs to get office." This remark was made in my hearing a few days ago, and I echo it. Men who have lost popularity enough to secure nomination in their own party, should not have been placed upon the Union ticket—a ticket which should have been so made up, of men of the highest character and popularity in the Republican and Democratic parties throughout the county, as to command universal respect. As it is, what do we see? A ticket that is the result merely of the scheming of a few selfish, party politicians, who have never looked beyond self. For my part I am tired of being sold out by such men. They bartered away the Whig organization to the Know Nothings; the next swap was to the "People's Party;" then to the Republicans; and now to what?—an individual political partnership in your town, who hope to cover a "multitude of sins" by adopting the name of "Union." All this time the Democrats have kept to their organization, without turning to the right or left, showing their colors whether defeat or success stared them in the face—and for this consistency they deserve respect at any rate. Their ticket, too, is unexceptionable, and from all I can learn, was fairly made by the Delegates themselves. As I must make a choice duty will urge me to vote it.

A CLAY WING.

For the Compiler.

Mr. Editor:—If Busbey, Benner, Janner and Dick were sincere in their Democracy, they must have known that to be a Democrat was always to be a Union man. Could they be any more Union men by turning their coats? It does not speak well for their consistency, especially when by working for and accepting nominations for office they give color to the suspicion that office is all they want. If they were not the "true grit" in their professions of Democracy, are they to be trusted in their "Union" professions?

For the Compiler.

Mr. Editor:—It is said that John Busey has voted for John Buren, the Star candidate for President, in opposition to the veteran soldier, Gen. Cass, and the gallant soldier, Gen. Taylor. Was it so, think you?

We don't recollect where Mr. Busey stood then, but on referring to the official vote of the county at that election, we see that in Conowingo (Mr. B's township), Van Buren had one vote.

Mr. Busey has been rather twisted in politics—everything by turns, and nothing long. Some account for it by attributing to him a very ancient hankering after office.

Baltimore was thrown into much excitement on Friday last by the arrest of a number of prominent citizens, through an order from the Provost Marshal at Washington, the cause not stated. Those arrested are Hay or Brown, Hon. Henry May, Frank Key Howard, Wm. G. Harrison, Ned Winans, S. Zeckle Wallis, T. Parkin, Scott, Charles H. Pitts, and some eight or ten others—including all about ten members of the Legislature. They were taken to Fort Mifflin.

Many persons spend so much time in criticizing and disputing about the gospel, that they have none left for practicing it.

For the Compiler.

Mr. Editor:—On last Saturday a week since, the Republican leaders, feeling the same giving up beneath their feet, by flaunting handbills and illustrated advertisements previously posted and circulated, called together delegates "irrespective of party," to nominate a ticket for the offices to be filled this fall. "Union" was the call; "Union" the charm, and "unconditional Union" the shibboleth of every body's patriotism. So far all well. The appeal was to rally to the "Union Party" (still a political organization), and to elect all "selfish, mercenary political notions," renouncing "partisans" and "partizan leaders." All beautiful in print. But voters of Adams county, bear with me a moment in an analysis of the constituent elements, ruling spirits, and designs cunningly laid and artfully concealed beneath the fair exterior.

Democrats, who in the exuberance of your characteristic patriotism, determined, without mercenary motives, to participate in the Convention, believing the call to be in good faith made, you have been deceived. Republicans, you who have long labored for the success of your party, and ought to be rewarded for your industry, you have been disappointed. Political tricksters have managed the entire selection of this ticket, and a bargain and sale "between a played-out Democrat and a Wide Awake private has been consummated—and only honesty in your intentions and pure in your patriotism, you have been deceived and become the dupes of these wily politicians, in the policy of your strength rise up and denounce the wicked toying with things held sacred in this day of our national peril!

Some Democrats were delegates in order that they might not be left out of the "bargain and sale," and finding that their Abolition sentiments were not general to Democracy they feared they might not be remembered for their apostasy in a Democratic Convention. Others were there to build up the fast-fading political fortunes of disappointed office-seekers who sent them. A couple were there to exhibit the proper feeling in these perilous times, but, alas! how woefully have you been duped. If immiseration were an attribute of Republican politicians in your county, you might have hoped that the design of the Union Convention, so styled, was all professed to be. But you answer, "Democrats were chosen for the greater number of offices." True—such Democrats as they are—and further, you say, "No benefit accrued to Republicans; the transaction is fair." Look here, my friend, don't you know that a very unpopular leader, previously conspicuous and a loss on the day of Convention has fallen almost wholly for some time in order that the Republican organization may be successful in this county? That and office are some of the objects of his political effort, and this is the way it is to be brought about. Republicans, honest, sincere men, are your claims to be satisfied—your positions to be upheld by the whim of him?

Why have Democrats renounced the principles they have espoused for years? Why have they gone into the support of a Republican Union ticket, when there is a Democratic Union ticket in the field? "Oh," says my friend at my elbow, "they have not gone—they don't intend to support the Republican ticket." Yes, so will—

"No," continues he, "more, unless it be the few, the immortal few, who are candidates on the ticket, and not all of them." Then, Republicans, you have sold your right to office for four Democratic voters, all told, by direction of your Wide Awake leader.

Democrats, you have nominated a ticket on a platform of resolutions as patriotic and Union as Democracy is wont to be. There is no occasion to leave your time-honored organization. For loyalty and Union-shrieking we have been denounced. Stand to your colors. Be not renegades, and say that you regard not those who have betrayed their party by accepting nominations from the Opposition for the thirty pieces of silver. Never reward political apostasy.

TECK BULE BLANK.

Mr. Editor:—On the return of an delegate from the Union Convention, I was informed that the Co-partnership of McCaughy & Danner had been formed, and the Union movement was entirely in their hands. I would like to make application for several positions for worn-out Democrats, if they can spare the room next year. As we have been left without even thanks for our work, and Democrats have taken our places, please let the Republican party know that if such measures to heart and lead it. They henceforth shall not find me a follower.

ORCHESTRAL CONCERT.—The Grand Concert, of which notice was given in our last issue, needs no further commendatory remark at this time. We are pleased to learn that the entertainment will be of no ordinary character. As we submit to our intelligent readers the programme to be used on the occasion, no comment is necessary on the character of the music. Those who can appreciate good music will at once see how fully their tastes will be suited. The programme gives evidence of the desire on the part of the managers to please every body. The introduction of several stirring pieces for full brass band will add much to the variety and interest of the entertainment; and throughout there is an evident and judicious variety of spirit and style in the selections, which cannot fail to make it, in our opinion, a decidedly popular concert. But let the Programme speak for itself.

PROGRAMME:

1. Overture. Salvo de Bagdad. Boeldieu.
2. Adagio. Brass Band. Mozart.
3. Duet. "Romero from Home." Gangne.
4. Polka from Home. Gangne.
5. Natasha Waltz. Labinsky.
6. Quartet. from Opera Preciosa. Weber.
7. Duet. from Opera Norma. Bellini.

SORES, ULCERS, SORES, BUBOES, PIMPLES, PILES, BLINDNESSES, BLINDNESS,
LEPROSY, AND ALL SKIN DISEASES.

Oakland, Ind., 6th June, 1869.
J. C. Ayer & Co., Gents: I feel it my duty to acknowledge that your Sarsaparilla has done for me. Having suffered from a Scrofulous Eruption, I have suffered from it for many years, for years, it has been a great burst out in the face, and arms; sometimes it ruined inward and distressed me at the stomach.
Two years ago it broke out on my head and covered my scalp and ears with one sore, which was painful and loathsome beyond description.
I tried every medicine, and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing. I felt, the disorder grew worse. At length I was induced to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an alternative (Sarsaparilla), and I bought some from your store, and made made must be good. I sent to Cincinnati and got it, and used it till it cured me. I took as you advise, in small doses of a teaspoonful over a month, and used almost three bottles.
Now my healthy skin shows no more of the disease, which after a while fell off. My skin is now clear, and I know by my feelings that the disease has gone from my system. You can well believe that I feel what I am saying when I tell you that I feel you to be a true and apostles of the age, and very grateful to you.
Yours truly, ALFRED B. TALLEY.

request of your agent in saying I have found your Sarsaparilla to be the most effective in the numerous complaints for which we em-

Diseases of the Scrofulous diathesis. I have cured many inveterate cases of Leucorrhoea by it, and some where the complaint was caused by the use of the Sarsaparilla. The disease in-remedies we could employ, but at length been use of your Sarsaparilla, and after he had used it, the eruption broke out on the face, and

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of throat and lung complaints, that it is needless here to fully state the evidence of its efficacy. It is useful in every form of cough, cold, and croup, and its truly wonderful cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilized nations of the earth. Few are the communities or even families among whom they have not become household words. Its effects are so strikingly trophy in their midst of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs. As all know the dreadful fatality of these disorders and as they know the effects of this remedy, we need here say nothing more than to state that it is the virtue that it did have when making the cure which have won so strongly upon the confidence of mankind.

Abstract The purpose of this study was to determine whether there were differences in the prevalence of risk factors for falls between fallers and nonfallers in a community sample of older adults. Data from the Health and Retirement Study, a nationally representative longitudinal survey of Americans aged 60 years and older, were used. A total of 7,890 participants completed the questionnaire. Of these, 1,000 reported having fallen at least once during the previous year. Fallers had significantly higher rates of depression ($p < .001$), arthritis ($p < .001$), osteoporosis ($p < .001$), poor vision ($p < .001$), hearing impairment ($p < .001$), and difficulty walking ($p < .001$) than nonfallers. There were no significant differences between fallers and nonfallers in age, sex, education, income, marital status, smoking, alcohol consumption, or history of stroke. These findings suggest that fallers have more chronic health conditions than nonfallers.
